COVID-19 CONCERNS

Please note the waiver statement on the adjacent page.

In order to comply with guidelines for reducing the spread of COVID-19, a number of normal trial procedures will be modified. The specifics will depend on what "Phase" we are in at the time of the trials; we will provide exhibitors with as much information as we can before the closing date, so that they can make the choice to remain entered, or withdraw with a full refund of entry fees prior to closing. It is a challenge to make these trials "exhibitor friendly" while coping with restrictions; please be aware that we want to keep everyone as safe as possible while still having the opportunity to have fun with our dogs!

Masks are encouraged for exhibitors, and MAY be required while in enclosed areas (can be removed while an exhibitor is doing their runs, and put back on before leaving the arena), depending upon what regulations are in effect at the time. Workers will be asked to wear masks and gloves. Crating will need to be more spread out and crating in exhibitors' vehicles is encouraged IF outdoor conditions are suitable.

Walk-through groups may be smaller. Depending on the number of entries.

Measures will be in place to maintain distance between handlers while waiting to go into the arena. Placement of chairs must meet County/State requirements for social distancing

An inherent risk of exposure to COVID-19 exists in any public place where people are present. COVID-19 is an extremely contagious disease that can lead to severe illness and death. By attending these events, you voluntarily assume all risks related to exposure to COVID-19.

While ordinarily we LOVE to see spectators at our events, the current health concerns require that we limit the number of people in the building as much as possible, so spectators are not encouraged. If family members or guests that are not running dogs are present at the trials, they will need to sign a waiver form upon arrival.

COVID-19 WAIVER

By signing the entry form for this event, exhibitor agrees to the following:

I attest to the best of my knowledge that I do not have COVID-19 at the time of attending this event. I also attest that I have not knowingly been in contact with or exposed to any known carrier of COVID-19 within the past 14 days.

I agree that I am attending this Event entirely at my own risk and take full responsibility for my own health and safety during this Event. I will follow all AKC, Collie Club of America, City, County, State rules and requirements to reduce any exposure and possibility of contracting or spreading the virus during the Event.

I fully submit that the Collie Club of America, the American Kennel Club, Fido's Farms and any other persons affiliated with the Event are in no way liable for any present or future COVID-19 exposure incurred at any time by any person, whether in attendance or not, during or after this event.

A HITCHHIKER'S GUIDE TO THE GALAXY OF COLLIE HERDING INSTINCT CERTIFICATION OPTIONS

Collie Club of America (CCA)

HIC – Herding Instinct Certified: This certification may be earned by completing the requirements at a single test. There are at least three ways to meet these requirements. The test may be an event that is a specifically dedicated CCA HIC test, sponsored by an authorized club or authorized individual. CCA will also issue an HIC certificate to collies that pass the first leg of the AHBA HCT, or one leg of an AKC IT if the owner sends the CCA Versatility Committee Chair the paperwork from the AHBA or AKC test and $5 to cover processing. Requirements are that the dog show basic on-leash control (pause/stay, and short recall), off-leash controlled movement of livestock, and a stop and off-leash call off at the end. The controlled movement of livestock means that the dog attempts to keep the stock in a group, and will generally attempt to move the stock toward the handler. Driving of the stock away from the handler is also acceptable, provided it is controlled movement and not merely chasing. The judge may handle the dog if the owner wishes. Further details can be viewed online at <http://www.collieclubofamerica.org/herding.html>

American Kennel Club (AKC)

IT – Instinct Tested: This certification may be earned by passing two tests under different judges. Both tests are similar to the HIC described above, and the judge may handle the dog if the owner wishes.

Further details can be viewed online at http://images.akc.org/pdf/Dog_Shows.pdf and here (go to p 26) <http://images.akc.org/pdf/rulebooks/RG9001.pdf>

Passing the first leg of an IT also qualifies you to receive the CCA HIC certificate if you send the paperwork to the CCA and pay a $5 processing fee.

To Repeat: The CCA HIC may be earned either by passing a dedicated CCA HIC Test, or by passing the first leg of an AHBA HCT test, or one leg of an AKC IT test. The requirements for all three venues are essentially the same. No organization requires that the handler must be the owner; using an experienced handler who is not the owner is an option for any of the three types of instinct test, and the judge may handle the dog for the first leg of the HCT and for both legs of the IT.

MORE ADVANCED HERDING TEST OPTIONS: TO INFINITY AND BEYOND

American Kennel Club (AKC)

HT – Herding Tested: This title maybe earned by passing two HT level tests under two different judges. For sheep the arena may be between 100 X 100 ft up to 100 X 200 ft for sheep, and about half that size for ducks. The dog and handler move the stock across the arena and back twice, turning in the vicinity of cones placed at either end of the arena. The dog must demonstrate a controlled pause before being released to work the stock, and must show a stop and recall at the end of the test. The judge may give verbal advice but may not directly handle the dog.

PT – Pretrial Tested: This title maybe earned by passing two PT level tests under two different judges. For sheep the arena may be between 100 X 200 ft up to 200 X 400 ft for sheep, and about 50 X 100 ft for ducks. There are panels in two adjacent corners of the arena about 12 ft from the side fence and 26 ft from the back fence. The dog must demonstrate a pause before being sent to gather the stock, and then the stock is moved between the fence and the corner panels. After negotiating the second panel and continuing about halfway up to the end of the arena, the dog and handler reverse direction and take the stock back through the two corner panels in the opposite direction. After negotiating the two corner panels in each direction, the dog and handler pen the stock. The dog must show a controlled stop at some point on the course, and again before penning the stock. The judge may give verbal assistance, but may not handle the dog.
